

You are Welcome Here!

We come together in worship

- to listen to God;
- to know and be known by God;
- to grow in our faith;
- to be changed;
- to support each other; and
- to help one another do what God asks us to do.

Our time together looks like

- sitting quietly together in prayer or meditation
- listening if someone is moved by the Spirit to speak;
- including children for a time before their children's program;
- shaking hands when worship ends; and greeting those around us.

You are welcome to join us as you are. Dress as you feel comfortable.

We believe that every person is loved by the Divine Spirit. There are Quakers of all ages, religious backgrounds, races, education, sexual orientations, gender identities, and classes.

Please feel free to ask the person who ends meeting or the greeter at the door any questions you might have after Worship.
